The Honolulu Diocesan Quarterly Magazine was laid on our table yesterday. The contents are not particularly interesting. Under the heading of "Two Memorials" Bishop Willis states he has received two memorials, one with over eighty signatures, asking him to resign. The Bishop thinks there has been a craze for signing memorials during the holidays.

once exhibited that no sound mind can hesitate for a moment to the capability of the Government to maintain, a proper and sufficient force to be prepared for any emer-gency in the future.

In conclusion and for the purpose of vindicating the character of my former brethren in arms, it cannot be doubted that they have in a great measure maintained their status and positions as due their character and discipline as gentlemen and soldiers. For the people, have not scrupled to stigmatize them as unworthy of the title and positions they hold. For 16 years of my connection and service in and with the King's Guards, I have never know them to be lacking of courage their duties and knowledge of their profession, Perfection is the standard and not the rule with them, considering the limited means placed at their disposal. Nevertheless, their intergrity to their duties and their discipline have always been maintained and never for a moment questioned.

Few outside of naval and military circle know the causes why no shot in anger were fired by the King's Guards at the time and riot of June 30th, 1887, of which the Friend, the Saturday Press and the Hawaiian Gazette, have lauded with high plaudation the success of the bloodless revolution and rebellions scheme of inaugurated by the Reform Party during that period. It was simply owing to discipline and obedience to orders. In absence of a "Riot Act" being publicly read, nor a "Martial Law" proclaimed, to warrant an active demonstration on their part, but in strict obedience to the Constitution and to the Laws of the land, to the Commands and Rules and Regulations of Military Law as prescribed in every well regulated military organization of all civilized nations, and community in the world, no blood; Yea! not even one jot or little of blood was shed. Verily! Verily!! This bloodless revolution, has been tenaciously claimed as a grand and glorious vic-

Claimed as a grand and glorious victory gained by the "Honolulu Rifles, the Boys in Blue," and for the Reform Party in particular.

Now that the scene has changed, a proper vindication of the character of the officers of the Guards with their men should be at once recognized, that aspersion should not be cast against them for doing their data.

I would then suggest and propose A special meeting of the Fire organization of the military, be not A special meeting of the Fire Police is announced for this evening.

Honolulu, Sept. 16, 1890.

It is Said

That the Chamberlain wants to collect $900 from the Minister of Foreign Affairs for the state dinner to Admiral Brown; that the Minister won't pay until he sees the vouchers; that the Minister and the Chamberlain smile not when they meet, but Your most Obedient and pass each other coldly by on the other side; that somebody was "helplessly drunk" the other night, and some-Colonel on His Majesty's Personal body made a fool of himself. Who was it?; that a certain old gentleman in the Legislature will have a stroke of apoplexy some day when the name of "Thurston" is mentioned; that the Finance Report is the measliest most small potatoes document ever produced by a Hawaiian legislature; that Dr. Tucker is to be removed and a personal friend of the Minister of the Interior appointed in his place; that the Cabinet is walking on slippery ground, and should heed wise counsel; that the proposed Superintendent of the Insane Asylum would make a better inmate.

There was a narrow escape from drowning at Laupahoehoe on the 11th inst. By the capsizing of a boat from the schooner Ka Moi a young native girl was carried down with a heavy casting on which she had been seated. The sailors dived to the bottom in search of her, but did not find her. Shortly after she came up like a fish, none the worse for her involuntary trip to the bottom with the
